“ I will always remember Harriet. She was such a sweetheart, kind and gentle and her sense of humor was wonderful. I can still hear her laughter. Some of my best memories are of the three friends (from the age of five, the year of kindergarten) as they met together and shared stories of raising children, husbands and daily events. The lifelong friendship of Skip Boyer, Harriet and Joyce Walters was an inspiration to me, as I watched them share their lives and supported each other through all kinds of trials. I will miss this lovely lady.

“ Harriet was my dear neighbor, good friend and serogate mother as my mother lives over an hour away. I loved my regular visits with Harriet, we would talk for hours. Harriet, like my own mother, was always there to listen, give support, joke, have a good laugh or cry together. Harriet never judged me and was always kind hearted. We both shared a love for crafting and had many projects that we worked together on. I only know one other person that could even come close to her abilities, my mother in-law, Mary Lou. Both could sew, paint, make dolls, knit, crochet, do any kind of needle work, quilt, garden, her talent was impressive. I love you Harriet, thank you for your kindness, caring and friendship. You will be missed!

“ My gram was the best. She could light up an entire room. I have lots of memories but the funniest was at my wedding where she had tequila for the first time. The faces she made were priceless. She even had the line and salt I was shocked she did it! I will miss her so much.

“ I was very Blessed to have known Harriet as a Dear Childhood friend, then a Lifelong friend through my Mother. I love all of the stories they shared of one another through their world and onto my world. My Mother Barb Addis had a loving fondness for Harriet as Harriet did for Mother. One particular time at my daughter's Open House from High School Harriet Striggow, Joyce Walters and Nancy Hanshew had sandwiched my daughter on the couch and shared their thoughts and memories of their High School days with her Grandmother, thus me seeing all of these beautiful Women, Wives, Mother's and Lifelong Friends in a much different light. Harriet, Joyce, Nancy and Mom filled the room with High School Girls laughter that day and I shall always remember that day. I see Harriet perfect and whole, free from pain and set free in the pure light of God.
