“ Hazel and I once spent a weekend together up in Tustin Michigan at the Kettnuten Center. It is a 4-H facility in the middle of nowhere, peaceful, beautiful and tranquil. The same words I would use to describe Hazel. We shared some life stories and for that one weekend conversation flowed easily as there were no interruptions from children or husbands. She was very easy to talk to as she was someone who listened with a patience most people don't have. Though I haven't seen her in many years, I am sure this kind, gentle, patient woman had not changed through the years and will truly be missed by those who are dearest to her. May your memories of her bring you some peace in your time of sorrow. With deepest sympathy. .Judy Steinmetz

“ My favorite story as a child was hearing about my mother, Aloah (Lumsden) Ringl and Aunt Hazel going on an adventurous road trip through the Rocky Mountains when Hazel was about 10 years old. They ended up teetering on a precipice when a large vehicle forced them off the edge of a mountain road. My mother kept telling Hazel to stay in the car, but Hazel would have none of that, hanging over the side of a cliff!

Aunt Hazel was a wonderful lady and I will miss her quiet spirit.
