“ By the age shown here, June was 10 years older than me. That is when I remember best I guess. She was visiting Mama, Daddy and us. The word I got was that she had been called to preach. That was neither here nor there for me, I was in love with her sweet spirit. Any time I thought of her over the years, that's what I thought of. Sweet and gentle. It is sad how we get separated when I'm sure the parents would love to have kept us all together even at a distance. However the same is happening now and that could be the reason we start trying to follow our family tree years later. Thanks to our Chapman family page, we are in touch with Jimmy still in Tenn. and many of the Chapman family by posts they share.

Blessings to Irma June's children and grands

Blessings a peace to Jimmy and her siblings.

Surely we can have a grand family reunion a few more miles on down the road...You all are invited to my "mansion"...
