

James A. Cox

December 30, 1971 - November 18, 2013

James A. Cox, age 41, of Holly, died Mon. Nov. 18, 2013. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM Mon. Nov. 25, 2013 at the Dryer Funeral Home, Holly. Burial will be in Perry Mount Cemetery, Pontiac. Visitation will be from 2-5 and 7-9 PM Sunday. Mr. Cox was born in Pontiac on Dec. 30, 1971, the son of Samuel and Edyth (Clark) Cox. He is survived by his mother Edyth Cox of Holly; brothers and sisters, Kelvin (Cindy) Cox, Sandra Henderson, Elizabeth Pulvirenti, Cheri Marshick, and Debbie Houston; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father Samuel Cox. Memorial donations may be given to the family.

Cemetery Details

Perry Mount

Pontiac, MI

Previous Events

Visitation

NOV 24. 2:00 PM - 5:00 PM (ET)

DryerFuneral Home, Inc.
101 First St
Holly, MI 48442
(248) 634-8291
bgdryer@hotmail.com
<https://www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com>

Visitation

NOV 24. 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM (ET)

Dryer Funeral Home
101 First St
Holly, MI 48442
(248) 634-8291

Service

NOV 25. 11:00 AM (ET)

Dryer Funeral Home
101 First St
Holly, MI 48442
(248) 634-8291

Tribute Wall

“ i knew the whole family. they were just like family.

Jason Cole - September 23, 2015 at 08:43 PM

JC

jim was my best friend. i grew up with jim from childhood in 1976 i will miss my friend.

jason cole - October 20, 2015 at 08:59 PM

jimmy was like a brother to me. this is so sad that i lost my best friend.

Jason Cole - November 14, 2015 at 04:12 AM

AF

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope your will be able to find comfort in memories of the past and hope for the future. Our loving creator feels the pain of our losses as we do and has promised to undo the sorrow death causes. (Rev. 21:4,5; John 5:28,29) The Bible promises we will one day see our loved ones again, but at a time when there is no more pain, sickness, or death. Until that time, may you find joy in the many memories you have. My prayers are with you.

AF - November 30, 2013 at 07:48 AM

AF

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will be able to find comfort in memories of the past and hope for the future. Our loving creator feels the pain of our losses as we do and has promised to undo the sorrow death causes. (Rev. 21:4,5; John 5:28,29) The Bible promises we will one day see our loved ones again, but at a time when there is no more pain, sickness, or death. Until that time, may you find joy in the many memories you have. My prayers are with you.

AF - November 30, 2013 at 07:47 AM

 Barb
Hornberger

“ I have heard so many stories of Jim and my bf David Robichaud causing mayhem in their younger years...I also met and hung out with him several times over the years. I just wish we hadn't lost contact these past few years! We are heart broken to hear of jims passing but know we will see him again in heaven! Condolences to the family from both of us. Dave and Barb

Barb Hornberger - November 25, 2013 at 01:13 AM

CH

“ Going to a viewing tonight was especially hard. The death of a loved one is usually tough. But the unexpected sudden death of one younger than you and one who you shared so much time with as children as our families grew and became families of our own is especially difficult. Jimmy was family. He was special because he was always happy, he was always there, and could be expected with the rest of the family to show up for birthdays, picnics, family get togethers or yes, even funerals. Seeing Jim there tonight brought back floods of memories to me. Not just of him, but of his Siblings, Cousins, Aunts and Uncles, neighbors, childhood friends, and others we knew because of connections to him. Death is never a welcome part of our lives, for it signifies the end of our time here with those who love us and those we leave behind. But we go to celebrate their life and console our loss. We hug and kiss one another and greet those we have not seen for a while. We catch up on conversations and lives that have continued on through the absence of us being in constant contact, but because of our connections we can easily pick back up to where we are now. Tonight I not only got to console those whom I love dearly for their great loss, but I was consoled by them for mine. That is love. That is what life is about. That is why we are connected. To be there for one another, to support one another, and to show our love for one another, even if it is spaced by time and distance. I want to thank God and my family for the love and care that I share with them and celebrate Jim's life and memories in my own. As children we played, as adults we still loved one another, and in death, he will always be remembered as my friend. R.I.P. Jimmy. You will be missed by all who's lives you touched.

Cindi Armstrong Hinds - November 25, 2013 at 12:01 AM

for your loss

Kathleen Bernard - November 26, 2013 at 04:34 PM

“ Going to a viewing tonight was especially hard. The death of a loved one is usually tough. But the unexpected sudden death of one younger than you and one who you shared so much time with as children as our families grew and became families of our own is especially difficult. Jimmy was family. He was special because he was always happy, he was always there, and could be expected with the rest of the family to show up for birthdays, picnics, family get togethers or yes, even funerals. Seeing Jim there tonight brought back floods of memories to me. Not just of him, but of his Siblings, Cousins, Aunts and Uncles, neighbors, childhood friends, and others we knew because of connections to him. Death is never a welcome part of our lives, for it signifies the end of our time here with those who love us and those we leave behind. But we go to celebrate their life and console our loss. We hug and kiss one another and greet those we have not seen for a while. We catch up on conversations and lives that have continued on through the absence of us being in constant contact, but because of our connections we can easily pick back up to where we are now. Tonight I not only got to console those whom I love dearly for their great loss, but I was consoled by them for mine. That is love. That is what life is about. That is why we are connected. To be there for one another, to support one another, and to show our love for one another, even if it is spaced by time and distance. I want to thank God and my family for the love and care that I share with them and celebrate Jim's life and memories in my own. As children we played, as adults we still loved one another, and in death, he will always be remembered as my friend. R.I.P. Jimmy. You will be missed by all who's lives you touched.

Cindi Armstrong Hinds - November 24, 2013 at 11:55 PM

LC

“ I have had the pleasure of working with Jim for the last 8 years. He was always very quiet and kind. He will be missed. I am so sorry to hear of your loss and my prayers and thoughts go out to Jim's family.

Lynn Clark
L & L Machine Tool, Inc.

Lynn Clark - November 24, 2013 at 07:25 PM

GR

“ Edyth & family: Our thoughts are with you these days of sorrow. May each of you be comforted by a special thought of Jim that will always be with you. George & Rita Rhodey, Calgary Canada

George Rhodey - November 24, 2013 at 01:36 PM

WC

“ Uncle Jim was always playing jokes on me and cracking me up. One time he put pizza sauce on my face and Grandma E said don't do that and Uncle Jim laughed. He played with me a lot and and I miss him. Now he is in heaven. Willow Crossley Henderson, Holly. Eight years old.

Willow Crossley - November 24, 2013 at 09:04 AM

SC

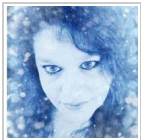

“ Jim had the greatest sense of humor and always made me laugh. His smile will truly be missed. He was such a kind-hearted generous loving man who would always go out of his way to help people. He will be truly missed. -SherriLea Crossley, Holly

SherriLea Crossley - November 24, 2013 at 08:52 AM

“ My memory of Jimmy is I had the hugest crush on him but was to embarrassed to say anything.. One day as I was walking around I ran into Jimmy and for some odd reason we held hands and never said a word to one another just kept on walking.. Went into the Hop In Store and got a Mountain Dew and he said I will pay for that . And we seen eacher the next day on the buss and he had this smile I will never forget.. He was a great friend and always made me laugh when I was sad he would cheer me up! Been so many years that I last seen him over 20 wish I would have kept in touch.. I just want him to know that I was glad to be a friend and will miss him dearly! RIP Jim inny Cricket

Krista Feldmann Valko - November 22, 2013 at 04:01 PM

“ Krista Feldmann Valko lit a candle in memory of James A. Cox

Krista Feldmann Valko - November 22, 2013 at 03:55 PM

“ Rip my dear old friend.. God I ask you to please give the family and dear friends all the support and commfort and strength during this difficult time..

Krista Feldmann Valko - November 22, 2013 at 03:54 PM

BR

“ you will be greatly missed, but we know that you are watching over our family everyday and helping them thru this ruff times

breanne - November 22, 2013 at 09:18 AM

TH

“ He was such a great person and will be greatly missed.... Prayers to the family so sorry for your loss of such a great guy.

Tina Hembree - November 22, 2013 at 08:57 AM

JS

“ You will be sincerely missed Jim.

Jackie Strzelecki - November 20, 2013 at 10:56 AM

AA

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Alisha Austin - November 19, 2013 at 07:21 PM