Rick was our middle brother. He was so active & full of energy when we were Young. Such a thing guy, mom called him little Ricky. He had a lot of heartache in his life but always trusted God. He knew the Bible back & forth, like our dad. I feel at peace, knowing he's in heaven, with all our loved ones who've gone on before. He loved his children & grandchildren & didn't want to leave them. We will all have a wonderful reunion one day.

*“ While miles separated us, all of my memories of my Uncle Rick are all fond and vivid. I can always recall his deep, genuine chuckle as he always did his best to make us children laugh. I remember how even in his darkest hours after his wife's passing, he made sure his nieces had a smile and knew his love. Uncle Rick reminded me so much of one of my favorite souls, his father, my grandfather- both faithful servants with a deep love of their family and friends. While I missed out of lots of memories and laughs as a result of the miles between Michigan and Tennessee, I cherish those I do have. Prayers are continually going up for his children, siblings, family, & friends. Heaven gained a great one!
Love, hugs, & prayers,

“ Ricky was the best big brother! Always supportive and comforting. I could call him anytime night or day and he was there to listen and give his brotherly advice. I miss him terrible but look forward to a wonderful reunion one day!

“ What I remember most about Bro. Rick is how much he loved the old hymns. He was always posting a hymn. I am going to miss that so much.
