“ It has been many years since I've seen or spoken to Jim. I currently live in Chicago, but have many fond memories of our boyhood years, braving the winters on Eagle Road, playing hockey, baseball, skating, tobogganing and just hanging out. My sister called me a little while ago with the news, and it saddened me a great deal. My sister also told me that Jim's wife, Kathy, has also just passed away. I knew Kathy from High School, and always remembered her as a very kind person. Jimmy was definitely one of my besties. I helped his father in his well drilling business, for a summer job. I send my love and condolences to Jim's family. He was a good man. Peace.
