“ As a former student minister serving the Cortland UU Church from 2012-2016, I am sad to learn of Jim's passing. Jim was a valued member of the Cortland congregation. He made great rhubarb crisps and I appreciated his sound nutritional advice. My heart goes out to all who mourn his absence. May your fond memories of Jim sustain you and may his Celebration of Life service provide healing and closure.

“ I just learned of Jim's passing. I knew Jim from the Massachusetts Men's Gathering. He was a warm and compassionate man. I attended his Reiki workshops. I was an intensive care unit nurse and found the information he shared to be very useful in my practice to ease the pain of others. I send my condolences to Jason Thornton and to Jim's biological family.

“ I just heard the sad news of Jim's passing. I knew Jim as a brother of the Massachusetts Men's Gathering which we attended together for many years. Jim was a very special person. We both shared a passion for energy work and compared and practiced our different approaches – Jim's Reiki to my Quantum Touch.
Jim will be dearly missed by those who knew him and benefited from his energy and enthusiasm.
I send my sincere condolences to all who were close to Jim.

“ Tom, Fran, Margaret and Michael,

There are no words to convey how very sorry I am to hear of your brother, Jim's, passing.

Although I didn't know Jim on a personal level, I did know The Pelton family very well. I practically grew up across the street (Grange Hall Rd.) from you all having spent a lot of time with my Aunt Donna and Uncle Dale Huffman. Many summers were spent playing in their pool and hanging out with you all. May Jim rest in peace free of the constraints of PD and Lewy Body Dementia. I know all too well how this disease affects not only the loved one living with it but how it affects those around them. My husband, Jim, is currently battling PD and has been for the past eight years. My deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences to The Pelton family and his friend, Jason.

“ Thinking of the Pelton family. We have had some good family reunions years ago. I remember Mert and Bonnie and family coming to Ingersoll for a June picnic with the relatives. James was a very smart man. He accomplished much.
