“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope your will be able to find comfort in memories of the past and hope for the future. Our loving creator feels the pain of our losses as we do and has promised to undo the sorrow death causes. (Rev. 21:4,5; John 5:28,29) The Bible promises we will one day see our loved ones again, but at a time when there is no more pain, sickness, or death. Until that time, may you find joy in the many memories you have. My prayers are with you.

“ Matt I am so sorry about your father. It doesn't help but I truly know how hard it is to loose someone that you love and have loved all of your life. It's what everyone says but I mean it from the bottom of my heart if you need to talk to vent or just to share a favorite memory I am always ready to listen. They say time heals, it doesn't it just makes it a little less painful and you will always have your good memories both in your heart and in your head. So reach for them when you need too and remember you can always talk to me. Day or night. Your friend, Kelly Cookston
