

Jill Denise Wagner

May 29, 1959 - October 24, 2024

May 29, 1959 – October 24, 2024

Jill Wagner, 65, passed away peacefully on October 24, 2024, surrounded by family at The University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor. Jill was born on May 29th, 1959, in Detroit to Richard and Janice Bell. Jill was the youngest of four, preceded in death by her two older brothers, Mike Bell and Rick Bell and survived by her older sister, Sandy Demek (Jeff Demek). After graduating from Redford High School in 1977, Jill worked in the insurance business until taking time off to be a stay-at-home mom. She would later return to the insurance business and eventually retired in 2019 to be a full-time Nana. Jill's incredible imagination started at a young age and grew into one with the most magical stories. During her retirement, Jill began to revisit her love of storytelling and writing. With the encouragement of her family, Jill would go on to write and publish a three-book crime thriller series which brought joy and adventure to the last few years of her life. Known for her infectious smile, morbid sense of humor and giant, kind heart, Jill leaves behind a lifetime of friendships and meaningful connections. She is survived by her husband, Allen Wagner, Jr.; her three adoring daughters, Kristy Miller (Bill Miller) of Byron, Shay Brown of Fenton, and Kelly Jobe of Fenton. Despite her many accomplishments, being a Nana is what filled her with the most pride, leaving behind four admiring grandchildren: Brett & Cameron Miller, Lily Wagner and Jaxon Cain Brown. Jill brought love and light to everyone she met. She was selfless, brilliant, strong and terrible at golf. She kept socks in her jewelry box and every piece of art her grandkids made. She was witty and always made people laugh. She was always her true self and her legacy of kindness and acceptance will live on in the hearts of those she loved the most. Family will greet visitors from 4 PM until 8 PM on Friday, November 1, 2024, and again on Saturday from 10 AM until 12 noon. A memorial service will be held at 12 noon on Saturday, November 2, 2024, at Dryer Funeral Home in Holly. Memorial contributions may be made in Jill's name to St. Jude's Children Research Hospital. <https://www.stjude.org/>

“ As a friend of the Tabbert family I have heard a lot of your family adventures and many stories of your Mom, Jill. I loved reading all her books. What a great story teller. You would never know or recognize me but I have enjoyed many stories from Debbie Tabbert about all of you. May a great person rest in peace.

“ Jill was one of my best friends. Terrible at golf, she always would say that, but I never thought so. She was my golf partner for many years, and I thoroughly enjoyed playing with her. She was smart, funny, quick witted and always there for me with her wisdom good times and bad. I will miss her, rest in peace my beautiful friend.

“ I had the opportunity to reconnect with Jill at her book signing and via Facebook. It had been years but it was so amazing seeing her and her family. I couldn't get over how cool it was to connect and enjoyed talking to her. I love the books. What an inspiration and accomplishment. I will miss seeing updates from you jill. Rip 🙏
