John was a very caring neighbor to me. He was always checking on me and my elderly friend Dick. If there was a car in my driveway John was across the road making sure we were alright. He was always plowing my driveway knowing my son was also a fireman and couldn't always get out to Holly to get me plowed out for me to get to work. He helped me with Dick when he became terminally ill, always concerned for us. I will never forget your kindness John and I'm sure you are already helping someone in heaven right now. Your grateful neighbor, Ruth. R. I. P.

“ With our deepest sympathy, John was a happy man. He would always talk to me out at work (Proving Ground) when he was working on tagging the gas tanks for scrap. I would always call him Johnny when we would call my name out. He will be sadly missed.

“ I have many good or funny memories of working with John in EMS over the past 16 years. My most memorable one is when he was my partner on my very first infant in cardiac arrest call. We were not able to save the baby and I will never forget how great he was to me, allowing me to cry on the ambulance bumper with John sitting next to me, patting my back and talking about how we all come to deal with such awful calls. He was always a mentor and kind of "super man" to me and he always spoke very highly of his wife, even years later at Alliance. He was a really good man and always smiling.

Very sad to hear of the passing of John. We were partners back at AMR. John was always looking out for me and was there and knew I need my appendix out before we got to the ER on our first call of the day. I was out sick from the stomach flu when I returned to work John new I liked my coffee in the morning. So when he saw I didnt have a coffee he stopped at the donut shop and got me a coffe it was so nice of him but my stomach couldn't handle it. John always looked out for others. Prayers to John and his family.

“ John was a man of God, who everyone liked! Always there to help with security; without being asked. Always ready to listen if anyone had a problem. He was and still is the type of Christian, who could make you smile and appreciate who you are in Christ and to cherish the few moments we have together!

John is already missed - for sure!

But if I know John, he is with the Lord and is getting the best recon of Heaven that can be gotten! He is getting the true briefing from the Lord of what is really happening! And he will be one of the first people many of us will see when we get to Heaven - because he would probably had begged for permission from Jesus to show us around when we arrive! Honestly - I can't wait!

So John, my brother and friend - I will not say goodbye, but see ya soon!!!
