“💔 My Dad. My best friend. My hero. My partner in crime. My everything 💔

He never let me down, never disappointed me, never left me needing or wanting, not even once. He's always been and given so much more than I could ever ask for. We do everything together, everything, he's been my best friend for my whole life. He's my favorite conspiracy theorist. He taught me how to be strong and brave. He supported me 100% no matter what. I love my Dad with my whole heart. He's truly an incredible human, best man you'll ever meet. Enormously giving and kind. Loves his family tremendously and loves his country.

My world will never be the same and my heart is completely broken. My poor Dad 💔. To say our family is devastated is an understatement. You never know how much time you have with the people you love. Cherish every single moment.

My Dad didn't want a funeral. He wants to be cremated and placed under a tree at his house that he built in the woods for his family. Maybe in the Spring, too much too soon, too much pain.

“ I recently met John at the Woodward Dream Cruise. In the brief amount of time I knew him, what was undeniable was his love for his family, his generosity, his kindness, his passion and love for America and it will leave a lasting impression on so many lives. His legacy will carry on. As we mourn his passing, celebrate his life and how much light he brought to and left for this world and race well run. Rest in peace my friend.
