“ John Renusch was one of the best friends my wife, Mila, and I ever had, I've been continuously dreaming of him coming up to our small round table in St. Rita's basement with his big smile and old coffee pot and pouring me another cup of hot, black coffee. I always thought that his coffee went best with strawberry donuts with pink icing on top! Oh, God, we are going to miss him so much!!! God, please take care of John for us. Life does not get much better than having good friends like John and going to "Coffee and Donuts" after Mass at church. And don't forget it! Dr. Stanley and Mila Gerrick

ME

I loved John! He was such a friendly, happy, wonderful person! I loved that they called him the mayor at his Assisted Living at Brookdale! He certainly was! He was all smiles and greetings! And I miss him at St Rita coffee and donuts too! He would make an announcement that it was someone's birthday anniversary and everyone would sing and he just was so wonderful! He will be missed!

Sorry to hear about our Uncle Jack, he was a character, an organizer, and a coach. He had issues, like we all do, but thankfully he was able to reconcile with Carol Lynn in the end. Nephew Jon Charles, ironically he passed a week after John Martin's 15 years earlier.
