“ My condolences to the family of Joe Babin, he will be greatly missed.

I was new to the Holly area 10 years or so back and went to St. Rita for mass, it was announced that donuts were in the lower level. I walked in and saw 3 big smiles Ceci, Pat and Joe they introduced themselves and got me some coffee and we began a long friendship.

I played violin in the choir and Joe would greet me as Beethoven. The laughs were not far behind as well as the joke for the week recited at the table. Then the old stories came, more than likely embellished far past the actual truth. We had some good times.

I loved that Joe built his wife a bird aviary in the yard. Birds were welcome at their home especially at the huge bird feeder.

Maria Cecilia lo siento para el perdido de su esposo carino pero sabemos que el descansa en paz con dios y los angeles. Oraciones para ti y tu familia en este tiempo.
