“ You left this world way to soon...you should have had so many more years to live your life and be with family and friends...I do not understand why these things have to happen and we may never know...I pray that God will wrap his arms around your family and ease their pain...My heart and tears go out to Mary Jo...I know the pain that she is feeling because I am still feeling that same pain after losing my Cyndi two months ago... We never got to know each other well but we did chat a few times on Facebook and we are family...It is your time now Joseph...fly home and be at peace... give Cyndi and Sandy a big hug and take care of each other until we can all be together again... until thjat time we will hold our memories in our hearts...you are loved and will be missed...Love you Aunt Viv
