Joyce Anne Freeman, 89, of Grand Blanc, Michigan, passed away surrounded by love and leaves behind a legacy of family, creativity, and warmth.

Joyce was the beloved wife of Wayne Freeman and a devoted mother to her sons Wayne (Meagan) Freeman Jr., Bryan (Niles Annelin) Freeman, and Brad (Dina) Freeman and loving grandmother to Audrey, Lindsay, Jack, Katy, Sam and Katherine. Her family was the center of her life, and she took great pride in creating a home filled with care, laughter, and kindness.

Joyce dedicated 25 years of service to Buick in Flint, Michigan, where she was known for her strong work ethic and reliability. Outside of work, Joyce was a gifted and passionate craftswoman. She found joy in ceramics, toll painting, crocheting, and countless other creative hobbies, always eager to learn something new and share her talents with others.

She was especially renowned for her exceptional baking and her love of Eastern European pastries and cuisine. Joyce's kitchen was a place of comfort and tradition, where recipes were perfected and memories were made. Her food was an expression of love, and those fortunate enough to enjoy it will never forget the care behind every dish.

“ Wayne, Wayne Jr, Brad and Brian, we are so sorry for your loss. I have so many great memories of aunt Joyce. My first memory that I can recall is she and I going to Pennsylvania to visit my great grandmother and grandfather Marvich. That was a very long time ago. Holidays as kids when we would all go to grandma and grandpa Lajavic's, all the laughter and happiness, and the FOOD! Omg, I've never had anything close to what aunt Joyce and grandma would make. I'm sure I still carry some of the lasting memories around my waist to this day. Please know that you are in our hearts and prayers during this time and always. Don and Susie Lajavic.
