

June Lee Strzelecki

June 25, 1945 - November 12, 2015

June Lee Strzelecki, age 70, of Fenton, went to be with the Lord on Thurs. Nov. 12, 2015. Memorial services will be held at 2:00 PM Tues. Nov. 17, 2015 at the Dryer Funeral Home, Holly, with Chaplain Andy Pugh officiating. Visitation will be from 1-2 PM before the service. June was born in Detroit on June 25, 1945, the daughter of Frank and Maxine (Hostetler) Short. She was a very loving Mother and Memaw to her family and was a caring and dedicated nurse. She put her heart and soul into everything that she did without asking for anything in return. She sacrificed herself to care for her family and others. Surviving are 4 children, Dawn Corless of Grand Blanc, Fayth Verran of Holly, John Adams of Holly, and Jason (Laura) Strzelecki of Ft. Stewart, GA; 11 grandchildren, Joy, Kendra, Nicole, John, Danielle, Alicia, Lance, Skye, Rayne, Grace, and Arnold; 12 great-grandchildren, Savannah, Alyssa, Emmett, Andi, Brynn, Roland, John Thomas, Hannah, Jonathan Jr., Keyara, Kash, and Brylee; sister Ann (Ned) Short of Birmingham, MI; brother Frank (Linda) Short of Royal Oak; grandsons-in-law, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, daughter Jessica, sisters, Connie and Sharon, and son-in-law John Verran. The family gives special thanks to Courtyard Manor of Fenton and VNA Hospice for their loving care. Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association. “ June became my Mother's best friend (Ann Beutler) when she moved into Courtyard. She and my Mother were referred to as TWINS. They were together all the time. My mother died just two weeks before June. They are together in Heaven carrying on as they did at Courtyard. I will be forever grateful that my Mother and June met and became such good friends.

“ I remember her singing in church with my dad. Her and my mom were good friends too. She use to sing " I'll fly away " and " How Great Thou Art". One her favorites when I was young was " Somebody Bigger Than You and I. I will always love and respect her as a wonderful and compassionate woman with a heart full of love. All of her loved ones and friends including my mom and dad are rejoicing to have such a blessed reunion! I grew up with Dawn, Fayth and John and we have many memories to cherish! Time doesn't heal the pain and as I too grow older and am no longer invincible know that I have many waiting for me! I also have been a R. N. for years and June was one who inspired me to make a better life and to be humble! My prayers are for your whole family! Love, Tammy
