

Karen K. Guffin

May 29, 1961 - February 6, 2018

Karen K. Guffin, age 56, of Holly, went home to be with Jesus on Feb.6, 2018. At this time no funeral services will be held, though her family will celebrate her life with a private memorial in the future. Karen was born in Flint on May 29, 1961 to Edith and Percy Fry. Her faith in the Lord was unwavering. She loved to laugh and spent as much time as she could with her daughters, spoiling her cat and working in her beautiful garden. She is survived by her daughters Holly (Andrew) Guffin Byczynski of Holly; Heather (Erik) Haaseth of SC; soon-to-be granddaughter Isla Claire Haaseth; sister Constance (Eric) Kochenderfer of Fostoria; and brother Robert (Cynthia) Fry of Houghton Lake. She was preceded in death by her parents and sister Gail Fry. Memorial donations may be given to the family.www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com

“ I have thought of Karen over the years and have just now read her obituary. I was in the same grade as she in the Holly school district. She was the first person to introduce me to her Savior, Jesus. Because of her friendship, and attending the same church together, Jesus is my Savior too. Thank you Karen, for taking time with me. You were such a caring person. My deepest sympathy to the family.
