

Kay C. Vander Kuy

July 15, 1956 - October 29, 2020

Kay Vander Kuy of Holly, Michigan, went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on October 29, 2020, following a short battle with cancer. Kay was born and raised in Lapeer, Michigan. She obtained a botany degree from the University of Michigan, where she also played basketball. Kay was a devoted U of M athletics fan throughout her life, frequently attending football and basketball contests and tournament events. She was a manager and assistant buyer for Frank's Nursery & Crafts stores for many years. Kay cherished nature, birds, wildlife preservation, and the beauty of Alaska, as well as northern Michigan vacations and lake sunsets. For many years, Kay lived on a beautiful lake in Holly, where she enjoyed watching the waterfowl and deer, and spent long hours working in her yard and perennial garden.

Kay is survived by her brother, Kirk (Tammy) Vander Kuy; aunt, Charmy Vander Kuy; and cousins, Steve Vander Kuy, Susie (Bob) Edgecombe, Lauren Vander Kuy, Dave (Julia) Vander Kuy, Chris (Dan) Nelson, Cathy (Dan) Rink, and Caroline Atkinson. Kay was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Casey and Myrt Vander Kuy.

The family extends its deepest appreciation to Shelli Donner and Shelly Tober, Kay's longtime friends, who were devoted to her care during her final months.

In keeping with Kay's wishes, no visitation or funeral is planned. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be given to Pawsitive Care Affordable Pet Clinic in Holly, Michigan.

“ worked with Kay many years ago at Franks Nursery and had some real great times with her. she was always fair and easy to talk to about anything. With her knowledge of plants and flowers, I would say we had the best of the best .. So sorry to hear of her passing....

“ Kay was a wonderful friend. We found each other in the fall of our lives. We shared our faith journey and became kindred spirits. May she rest in peace in the arms of our Savior.
