as an uncle i never you more than making someone, swimming, giving you & Kurtis ride after ride in the little red trailer behind the tractor. I remember teaching you how to drive the tractor. Then when we were both older, I remember the ski trips trips out west sitting in the hot tub outside while it snowed on us. Then to cedar point. I think I even taught you your first bad word when we were at cedar point "blue sucks" of course Kyle had to tell Uncle Ken how much fun we we had and then I got in trouble for teaching you that. Then the trip we planned to Cedar Point with me, you, Kurtis and Nick. The four of us had an awesome time except the drive home when all you boys fell asleep before we left the parking lot. We had a blast riding 4

“ Sharing a love for horses is how my daughter & I met Kyle & Jen. I knew Kyle as a cowboy & police academy reserve. He had a kind heart and always made you feel important. Kyles funny personality made us laugh many times & my heart hurts for all his family & friends - I pray you all stay strong thru this tragedy & the difficult weeks ahead. Kyle will be missed by many.
