“ I remember when Aunt Lana and Uncle Bill started dating and have been to her parent's house near Hartsfield Lanes in Berkley. We went to their wedding and I babysat for John when they lived on Lenox in Madison Heights 2 doors down from Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Bill Webb. I spent many an evening watching The Red Wings with Uncle Bill and Aunt Lana, well she was tolerating us more than watching the Red Wings. As everyone knows Uncle Bill could be a tad cantankerous but when that was directed to Aunt Lana she gave just as good as she got. I love you Aunt Lana and will miss you and Uncle Bill forever.

“ I grew up around the block...many a times in my older years we would visit a local diner and have coffee. She loved going out for coffee. Best dollar spent on a couple of hours of conversation. Love her!
