“ We were HS friends that had many classes together. We were always competing for the best grade (normally he won) and encouraging each other to achieve higher academic standards. Whatever he did, he did with excellence as his goal while maintaining a great sense of humor. I am certain he was an excellent husband and father and source of encouragement to those around him. His death came way too early.
Condolences and prayers!

“ Very sorry to hear of Lanny's passing. My condolences to his family. I had the honor of playing baseball for Lanny. He always lightened the mood in the dugout but also could be stern when needed. Lanny was also very knowledgeable

“ Lanny was a wonderful person. When I met Lanny he was in Welder Maintenance working on MC-MD door line. I was a conveyor attendant at the time on the same line. Lanny was a very good friend always smiling with a positive word and good heart. I considered him my friend. Lanny would carved these wooded things at work and I would just sit and watch him so skillfull.
Rest well Lanny and in Heavenly Peace.

I was blessed to know Lanny and to watch his eyes crinkle with a ready smile. He talked Tiger baseball with me, even during the dismal years. He was wise and bright and could spin a deep point of view based on religion or history. My favorite memory is of a family & friend gathering that included a wonderful meal. Lanny gave a prayer that included heartfelt thanks for his sweet and wonderful wife. He knew life was a gift, as he has been in ours. We know you are Gone to Glory dear friend, but we will miss you. Rest in peace. Love, Miriam Moore

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Lanny's passing. I enjoyed working for him in the robot test cell at GM Grand Blanc. I loved talking baseball stories with Lanny, like the time he played against Brad Van Pelt in high school. Brad threw so hard that in order to prepare for him, Lanny had his teammates pitch to him from 40' away in stead of 60'6". Lanny's strategy worked, as he was one of the rare players to get a hit off Van Pelt, who went onto be a football hall of famer.
