“ My dearest grandma,
I'm so thankful I got to visit last summer you will be greatly missed. You've always been my sunshine on some of my darkest days.
You were there to hold my hand & sneak me cherry pie while I birthed my 1st child. I remember the great visits to your house where I got to play Atari, a lil organ, beads to craft with from jockey, coloring & little golden books, my favorite tea set in the lil wicker basket I'd play with for hours. The joyful Christmas's, the Barbie clothes you hand made for me. The special chocolate soda that you always put in a special glass. Our trips to Aunt Sharon's for Thanksgiving. You helped me & my family in so many ways. There's so many memories I keep with me. I wish I would of called you more besides birthday & holidays(in these last few years) even just to say I love you (since we both weren't much of phone talkers lol) I know your at peace & that helps my aching heart.
You'll forever be my infinity of sunshine, I love you so much. R.I.P grandma!
Love & miss you always  April
