“ I remember Larry playing hours and hours of tennis in Fort Myers Florida at Cypress Woods RV Resort, with both Larry and our friend Dick Shank. I would always try and tease Larry, as I was NOT as good a tennis player as he was.

I miss him and will always think about the GREAT times we spent in the beautiful Florida sunshine playing a game we ALL LOVED!

Bless you Mr. L. and rest in peace my dear friend.

Very sorry to hear of Larry's passing. He was always a good neighbor and very much liked to rake his yard. He was also instrumental in helping get start in my new career. My prays go out to his family. These are always sorrowful times.
