“ It has been a week, and still cannot believe, Linda has crossed over. She will be greatly missed, by our Saturday night group. Her smile, her laughter, which I still hear in my head, her sense of humor. Always loved, to hear, about some project, she was working on. My heart, is heavy, with her loss. She was a good friend, who loved her family, and friends. I continue, to think of her daily. Love U Linda, know I will see U again, on the other side, where U are happy, and healthy. ❤️ Doreen

“ To many to share. Staying up till 3am in Arizona. Making wreaths and the next day working all day to get the nastiest wall paper off a bathroom wall in Arizona golf league and corn roasts. Love you Sam

Linda, I hope you are having fun reading all these comments for even though you are absent from the body we know your spirit lives on. Just so you know, I loved having you for my sister-in-law these past 30 years. Thank you for being the kind, considerate, caring, loving person we have all had the pleasure of knowing. We will miss you so much while we are separated and will rejoice when we are all reunited. Love you, Alice
