“ I have many great memories of growing up with Linda and the rest of the Sherman kids, along with the Harrowers and Ohlmachers on Mackey Road! At least one parent from each family started out as a teacher, with several ending up as principals and administrators. They helped each other build their homes out on a remote dirt road. Shermans had the biggest yard for any game that involved lots of running (or big enough for that old army surplus parachute). It was a happy, interesting community. The adults eventually started a once-a-month "International Night" where they took turns hosting a Surprise Dinner from a country of choice. The kids got to gather at a different home for the evening. Lots of fun, and a very safe, nurturing place to grow up (if you avoided the rattlesnakes!). Linda was the oldest of us. My love and sympathy go out to her and all her family. Wish we could have had an open funeral to hug each of you in person, but I understand why that's not possible now. I will definitely see you all once a memorial service happens! Here's a couple of pictures from Jay's collection (from a time I missed because of being overseas).

“ Linda was a beautiful soul with an infectious laugh and a warm, loving heart. We were high school classmates. Even though I did not see Linda often, we were always able to reconnect quickly at our girls weekend in Hale. Prayers for Ralph and her family.

Linda will forever be in our hearts and prayers. A great friend and employee of Heather Highlands for many years. She was loved by us all, and was a part of our children's lives since they were born. We will miss you, but never forget you. We know you are now home with our Lord. May you rest in peace. Love, Michael, Debbie, Joe, Mike, Kelly and Nicole.
