“ I have so many wonderful memories of my big sister. Most influential memories are from 1972 & older. June & Ray Sr. both were so kind & compassionate on being there for me & other siblings. Staying at there home when as a kid going thru some challenging times they always always made us feel loved & welcome. I told them through out my life how much as a kid I could never forget there compassion & kindness. She was a loving big sister & I never have nor will forget that or the kindness Ray Sr shown. Thank you sis for your love. I will forever miss you.

“ June was the BEST neighbor that anyone could ask for. She would do everything and anything to help someone out. I just loved her caring and stubborn disposition. I will miss her so much. Prayers go out to her whole family and her cat's that she loved so much.

“ Many of you know June was my oldest sister. In fact we were born 11months and one week apart. We would kid each other about being twins for three weeks.

Anyway when we were in high school I had stayed at a friend named Frank house and he and I another guy named Ray sat up on a Sunday night sipping Nature Boy wine. I was not a drinker and after a few sips I was a little tipsy. Anyway the three of us continued to sip until the early hours of Monday morning. As it broke daylight I made it home where my beautiful sister June did her best to square me away for school. I did make it to school, three sheets to the wind and sicker than a dog.

By the way June ended up marrying my one Friend Raymond L. Jackson.

“ We always had a second home with Our Little/Big Sister. I will always remember sneaking Jane over to visit June . Me being older it felt and her and I missing Our Big sister was my responsibility to ensure we went to see her. Jane 3 and I around 6 had to see one of the Greatest Sister's, God ever made and she was one of 3 super big sisters. June your going to be so very missed. I love you so much. Your with your love of your life . Dance with your Sweetheart again. Thank you Junie, Ryan, Holly and someone who even made God proud Jaime, for caring for my Big Little Sister. Save me a spot inbHeaven.
