“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you; Glenn, Bob and family. I have many fond memories of your Mom. I will never forget one afternoon Bob Sr. called and said, "hey meet us over at the township hall!" So I beat them over there, and they came roaring up on "the trike!" Here they were wearing their blue jeans, Bob in his cowboy boots, peeling off those helmets, smiling from ear to ear! They had just gotten back from a long road trip! They did know how to have fun! Loraine was the sweetest gal, so supportive of Bob, and she loved her family unconditionally! We're so sorry for your loss, may Loraine rest in peace holding hands again with her dear Bob!
