

Maddison Summer Whitbread

May 29, 2003 - August 6, 2023

Where there was a new day Maddison saw an opportunity for adventure. She loved to live in every moment and remind those around her how much she cared for them. She was authentic, bold and headstrong like her parents but beyond that her compassion & empathy for those around her was unparalleled. Maddison always wanted everyone to get along so each memory could be a good one, her heart was a rare find, that's why it is also one of our worlds most devastating losses. I hope that Maddison's memory will remind everyone to not only live your life authentically but to also never let your happiness be someone else's choice. She was so strong, beautiful beyond belief and the funniest person in the room. Family will receive visitors from 11-2 PM, there will be a procession to Lakeside Cemetery for a 2:30 PM service officiated by Jason Pate.
