I was blessed to help in scouts with Marie and Doug and we always asked to set in her section when she was employed at the restaurant. She was so sweet and loving and showed forth Christ everyday. I will be praying for Doug and the kids and rest of family.

“ Marie always impressed me how dedicated she was to her children. I was a sub for 30 years, mostly at Holly El, and found her at school very often , to either help her children or the classroom. She was so kind and never forgot to compliment someone for work well done. We loved having her as our waitress too. I loved hearing of her children's progress. She was so proud of them. She will be missed! My condolences to the family!
