She met and married her high school sweetheart and they were married for 60 yrs. before Gordon passed away in 2000. Her parents and grandparents helped carry stone to build St. Rita Catholic Church. Mom was the "Hallmark Queen" if she knew you you received a card from her for one reason or another. She supplied everyone with a hand knitted dish cloth. She was a worrier. “ I had the pleasure of meeting Marie a couple of years ago. I am a realtor in Holly and I listed Marie's childhood home, the "Barnum and Bailey" house on College Street. Marie's son, Jim, asked if they could bring Marie in to see the home after so many years. I was happy to oblige and Marie was full of insight and memories of the home that I was able to pass on to the new owners. Marie was a sweet lady and I thoroughly enjoyed our brief friendship. My sincerest condolences to your family Marie.

“ I had so much admiration for Marie. She was always kind and had a beautiful spirit and she did the most perfect job of raising the best kids that ever lived in Holly. How very blessed all of her children are to have had her for a mother and grandmother to their children. Holly will not be the same without her. Sharron Reid
