“ Sonny,

What I remember most about you was the number of times that you would show your melt after Odessia had written down the score. She would have to cross out or change the melt to include what you had not laid down before. I am sure that you will be talked about at the Hart Center for a long time. I remember also when Doug and I visited you at the hospital you told us, with tears in your eyes, that marrying Odessia as the smartest thing you ever did. We agree with you, she is a special lady.

Odessia,

I want you to know that I do not live that far away from you so if you need someone to take you to Kroger, or the doctor, please do not hesitate. I know how easy it is for you to get in and out of my backseat.

Love,

Doug and Helen Basberg
