“ You will be so deeply missed & loved. Ma. So many years of joy, laughter, tears, love and learning I had with you. You will forever live in my heart. Fly high now with the Angels and be free. Life as we know it will never be the same without you.
My deepest condolences and love hugs and prayers for our family.

“ Mary came into my life in September 2009. She became a part of my bowling team. Always happy and the wonderful things she has achieved. Her involvement with the Senior Center, the dancing, playing in the band. When she would compete at the Senior Olympics and come back to bowling and show all of us her medals 🏆. I miss you Mary. I know you are at peace and being back with your one true love.
