“ My most sincere sympathy to Mr. Phil Tinsman, Rusty, Debbie, Wendy, Randy and Danny for your loss of your dear Wife and Mother Mrs. Nancy Tinsman.
My memories of Mrs. Tinsman begin in Elementary School, all through the School years, to her amazing Caregiving kindness to my Grandmother Addis and as we cheered each other on through Physical our Therapy appointments. Such a sweet kind, caring and lovely Woman, of whom will be deeply missed. Peace.

“ I always admired Kay for her kindness and beauty. Her entire family lived on the same block as our family. All were exceptional people and a big asset to the whole community. Her maiden name was Shine and I always felt that it was so appropriate because to me she always did shine!

“ Kay was like a sister-in-law to me. I loved her and Phil. I babysat for all the kids for years since we lived across the street from them. It was such a pleasure every time I ran into Kay in Holly. She will be missed.
