“ I've known Nick for a good number of years through my daughter. He has been a guest at my home and always a welcome one at that. His smile and laugh always made me smile and laugh. He was truly a great kid. Last fall I asked Nick to install a stove for my daughter and check her furnace. I knew I could count on (without a doubt) the job being done well. After paying him for his work Nick called me a few days later to say that he owed me some money as he charged me to much. He said I charged you like a customer instead of like a friend and I'm sorry. This is just a small example of the goodness of this young man's soul. May he rest in peace. To his family I will say that your son was loved by my family. Your loss is ours and we mourn with you.

“ Nick mowed my lawn for the past 3 years and was planning on it this past weekend as well. He always did a wonderful job, and was a reliable man.. I am so saddened to hear of his passing. I am sending lots of prayers to his family, friends, and girlfriend during this hard time. Praying, praying, praying...

“ Nick was an amazing, hard working, life-loving man. If you didnt know him, i sure wish you could've. Him and my cousin Hallie started dating almost four years ago. I worked with him for 2 years with lawn care and helping with other small jobs. His life was headed in the right direction, worked every day for everything he wanted. He loved people, he absolutely loved dancing and hanging out at the family parties. He was beyond being just a happy man, he loved life more than he did himself. One night a couple summers ago, we were sitting by a bonfire and we drinking a couple beers, and i had one to many. He carried me into the house. Once he got me on the couch he brought me water and crackers. When we'd go mowing lawns together, we would joke about how he'd make it a booming business and then he could have everything he wanted, and be able to give to his family. It hurts knowing that, it wont become reality anymore. we miss you alot "Nick Hallie" love you bud.

“Nick and I were best buds starting in elementary school throughout middle school. Kris Paul, Nick and I were always kicking it at each other's houses, I miss those days. You were always the comedian of the group and laughed so hard at everything. It was always one of your qualities to bring joy and laughter to the people around you. Rest easy Nick.”

“ I met Nicholas as a baby and when George and I went to visit my brother William Fann in Huntingdon , Tn, we went with Bill to pick Nicholas halfway to his other grand parents. We had lunch with Nicholas and Bill at the Casey Jones train . We enjoyed seeing and being with him. He had a winning smile and a great desire to be successful in life. He had great goals.

I am so sorry for your loss. There are no words to say. My heart hurts for you. Look to God for your strength. God does care.
