

Nicholas R. Husted

November 19, 1951 - February 22, 2026

Nicholas Reece Husted, 74, of Holly, Michigan, passed away in the early morning of Sunday February 22nd. He was held in the loving support of his son and daughter, following a heartfelt visit with his broader family and loved ones. Born on November 19, 1951 in Flint Michigan, Nicholas was a graduate of Holly High School where upon completion he moved on to work at General Motors for a lasting career where he stayed until retirement in 2009. A passionate golfer and incredible photography enthusiast, Nick was always expanding his gear collection in search of the complete experience in his fields of interest. He also loved to travel and be on the sea. Always a constant at his grandson's sporting events, Nick also shared his son's passion for building and all things automotive; he was an eager problem solver for whatever he or his loved ones came across. Nicholas was "Umpa" to his grandchildren and Umpa's favorite activity with his granddaughters Lily and Sophie was exercising their sweet-tooths together along with lots of laughs and love.

Nicholas Reece Husted is survived by children Nikki Kay Friedrich with husband Matthew

Friedrich and son, Kevin Michael Husted with wife Traci Husted;

Grandchildren Lily and Sophie

Friedrich, Jett, Hudson, Cru and Ryder Husted and his siblings Elaine Duberville, Bill Husted and Nancy Arnold. He was predeceased by his mother and father Deloris and Wilbur Husted.

A Celebration of his life will be held at Dryer's Funeral Home in Holly, Michigan on Wednesday, March 4th from 11am-1pm with the Celebration Eulogy at 1pm.

Nicholas has been loved dearly and will continue to be cherished through time for his selflessness, unwavering support and steady demeanor in all aspects of his life.

Memorial donations can be made to: Fenton Adopt-a-pet, American Heart Association or Save the Manatee Club. www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com
