“ Dear Smith family I am very sorry for your lost. Ms. Smith sounds like someone who you have shared a lot of fond memories with. Along with those memories you want to remember the words found at John 11:25,26. Where Jesus states that "everyone exercising faith in him even though he dies will live". Reflecting on thoughts like those and many others that come from Gods word the Bible can bring us comfort during times like these.(John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4) If you would like to know more go to jw.org.com official website.

“ Offering sincere condolences to the Smith family at this time of sorrow. I hope you can draw a measure of comfort from Isaiah 25:8 where it states that soon our loving Heavenly Father will swallow up death forever and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Also, John 5:28,29 holds out the hope of a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death.

“ A wonderful lady will be greatly missed by many. Growing up around the corner from her on Lake Oakland we spent a whole lot of time at her house. Had so many great times together, family get togethers. Can't say enough about her. Sue, Bill, Karen, Uncle Harold and family I send you my deepest sympathies. But so many good memories hold on to.
Love you always, Cheryl VanConant

Aunt Nina was always a rock and offered a welcome home to her nephews and nieces (even when we didn't deserve it). Best wishes and deep condolences to the great family she leaves behind. Your loss is one which can never be replaced. May you know a peace that is beyond understanding. Larry & Linda Bridgesmith
