“ Dear Friends,

I like to tell the story about how I met your mom and dad. My husband and I decided to attend one of the luncheons at the Hart Center. When we walked in, we knew no one there and sat down next to your mom and dad. After we introduced ourselves, she said to me, "Do you play cards?" When I said yes, she said, "We need a fourth, can you stay and play today?" I said yes, and Doug left and came at 4:00 to pick me up.

And that is how our friendship started.

I realized the other day that I have three of her ornaments on my buffet in the dining room which means that I knew her for three short years.

Your mom was a gentle, kind woman who will be missed by everyone who knew her.

My thoughts go to all of you because I know that she will leave a big hole in your lives.

Lovingly,

Helen and Doug Basberg
