

Pamela A. Stevens

December 12, 1947 - March 29, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Pamela Ann Stevens, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She was a woman whose life was defined by her fierce love and dedication to her family.

Pamela was born in Bradford England on December 12th, 1947, and immigrated with her parents to the United States when she was 8 years old. While the USA was her home, she had a deep love and sense of pride for her English heritage.

She is lovingly survived by her devoted husband, Robert Stevens, and her children Ann Kotalik, Alan Knapp, and Andrew Knapp (Dana).

She was a proud grandma to her cherished grandchildren: Ashley, Heather, Katelynn (Anthony), Haley, Abigail, Zachary and Gavyn who all brought immense joy and laughter to her life as well as her great grandchildren Mason, Marleigh, Kaeden, Lincoln, Arianna, Maddie and Anthony Jr.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Elsie Kienzle, her father, Anthony Simpson, grandmother "Nanny" and son-in-law, John Kotalik.

Growing up as an only child, her greatest accomplishment was her large family. She leaves behind the beautiful legacy of love. She will be deeply missed.

In accordance with her wishes, cremation has taken place. Memorial service will take place at 4PM on Thursday, April 2nd, 2026 at Dryer Funeral Home in Holly. Family will greet friends and loved ones from 12noon until time of memorial at 4PM. “ I never saw Pam without a smile. We would laugh about how when I served her mom a beer make sure it was filled to the top. She wanted her monies worth or the time she was in the restaurant sitting on the patio I apparently wasn't doing my job. I was summoned to the phone it was Pam "Hey Cheryl we could use some diet Pepsi out here" Genius way to get your server to do her job! Sending love and prayers.

Dear Bob, Ann, Alan, Andrew and the rest of the family, Pam and I had a lot good times raising our kids together. And later in life we loved playing Bunco together with our friends. I will miss her, but she is not suffering anymore. Rest in peace Pam until we meet again. Love, Janet 🙏❤️📺
