“ Dear Aunt Pat embodied the 'lilt of Irish laughter' with her devotion to family and friends.

She knew the importance of being and showing her care by actions even perilous to herself. Whether whirlwind trips to out of town family weddings with Richard, her much loved and devoted son, or traveling with Don, her wonderful husband, during a polar vortex to be at the bedside of her cousin Jim as he received last rites, Aunt Pat enriched life's moments with her comforting and soothing presence. Aunt Pat saw and reminded those she loved of each one's own greatness and inner strength, reflecting her own graciousness and gentle wisdom, as intangible as Irish laughter, but just as vital.

Aunt Pat has blessed us all with her life, and our prayers and blessings are with her in her eternal life with God; while our sympathies and hearts are with her children as we mourn the loss of a great lady.
