“ My big sis, always there for me. We shared so many happy times and we shared some heart breaking times. We never doubted each other's love. My world is a sadder place without you. I know you are at peace and I am sure you will keep all the Angels laughing with your amazing sense of humor. Until I see you again please know that I will see you in every Spring flower, every grain of sand on a Summer beach, every beautiful fall landscape and every Christmas Angel.

“ To one of the best people to come out of the class of '59. She always had the room laughing. She never let on when things weren't going well. Oh, that we all could be more like her. She will be missed by all, family, friends and neighbors. My thoughts and prayers go out for the family. They will be lost without her.

Love you, from Sharon

“ There are so many great memories, I don't know where to begin, or which ones to share! Our grandmother Ruth passed away in 1977. Many of us grandkids were very young at the time. Aunt Pat kindly took on that roll and was more more like a grandmother to many of us. We always looked forward to Christmas! When we were younger, Aunt Pat and Uncle Gerry would take us shopping. We would have a sleepover, make ornaments, decorate cookies, and play games like Sorry and Trivia Pusuit! There were many family camping/canoe trips, and other get-togethers that we enjoyed so much! She was a fun person, who always had an interesting story to tell! I miss her already!

“ *My condolence to Pat's family.
I will always remember that cute little talkative school girl that was my good friend. One Holly School lunch period she, a couple of others and I drove my 1928 Chevrolet downtown for no reason at all. Well, it quite running on the Maple Street Rail Road Track and we ended up pushing that car back to school (1 mile). Pat got to sit in the car and steer. I can still hear her laughing, to this day. Yes, we were late...Pat talked our way out trouble and I went along with her story. Pat RIP, I love you my dear friend.

“ You were more like a grandma than an Aunt. You filled a void in my childhood that no one else could have. Thank you for all you did, rest peaceful with Grandpa, Aunt Sondra and Uncle Joe and all our other loved ones who went before you!

I love you always!

Jen
