“ Grandma, words cannot truly express all that you have passed on to us. You taught us to be fiercely independent, generous with our time and loyal to our family. We watched you love us and support us through all of life's changes. Thank you for all you have shown us and all you have given us. I hope you are dancing with Jesus right now and having a great time, I knew Moma got that from somewhere! Your legacy lives on in all of us and my prayer is that we can keep showing the future generations all of the wonderful things you gave to us. Love you Grandma!
