“ To the Garey Family,

What sad news to receive and my heart goes out to you. It is hard to lose one family member at any one time, but two in a week, is so difficult for you to go through. Mom and Dad were great friends to have through soccer seasons and Parkview Church activities. They have been missed in Miamisburg since their move to Michigan, but forever missed now. Keeping your family in my prayers! Rosemary Schenck

“ I had the pleasure of working with Garey at Home Depot for years. I remember interviewing some of our Vets around Veterans Day and during his interview I thought “THIS GUY IS A TRUE BADASS!”. When I told him that, he humbly blew it off. We had lots of early shifts together, so our breaks would line up and I would always ask him for his military stories and ask him questions. When Garey found out I was taking military leave, I think I instantly became his favorite associate there. Ha. Him and Kaye (whom I had never met until I returned back to Michigan and was instantly greeted with a big ol hug!), would send cookies and became my penpals. A bond was formed during those times and so thankful that Garey and Kaye had been put in my life. Garey was not only a hero for this country, but one of the hardest working, loyal, and respectable men I have had the pleasure to know.

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Rich’s death and that of his sweet wife. Though I did not know them, I am their cousin, being Russ’ niece, Larry Williams’ daughter. We were attending Ramona’s visitation when we learned of their passing. Our prayers are with you all.....Becky Williams Wingo Bowling.
