“ It was just a few weeks back that I had the opportunity to reminisce memories and stories with Kathy Bushman. We talked about all of you and how much you were such a part of each others lives. I have a fun memories myself of the years we spent as neighbors, which I am grateful for. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Marilyn
Will we ever forget the many good times in Dicks Car, coming to mind is the chicken in the road on our way to church or the skunk he ran over and it sprayed your leg through the hole in the car floor, or the tree that got in his way and he just ran over it or him and Martin using Dicks car door to knock over barrels on M-24 the list goes on and on and I will always miss him.
Love and Peace To You

My wife Gin and I will always remember fondly the great outdoor fish fries With the Kottkes and the Bushmans in Grindstone city. Nice guy, loyal friend. RIP Jon and Ginny Studebaker
