“ I knew RK through my husband Eldred. We camped near him at NMLRA shoots in Friendship, IN. We had such good times with him. When my husband became sick with cancer, RK and Brian would visit us here at our home. They were here the day before Eldred passed, toasting to life and reminiscing their days together. RK and Brian came to my husband's funeral, and would visit me several times after his passing. RK took upon himself to sell Eldred's antique guns for me which was such a relief. He traveled many miles to get the guns and, then, found the proper connections to sell them. I am truly grateful for his time and effort and comfort through the difficult time of Eldred's death. RK was a generous and faithful friend to us ...so kind and fun and, yes, ornery!! I will miss his mischievous laughter and his thoughtful spirit.

Sincerely,

Barbara Ehmen

“ One of my most vivid memories is when we were little, being in the den, him sitting on the leather chair with the paper, patting Jeni on the top of the head and calling her "burr head". I know he loved his girls and am happy to think of him reunited in heaven with Holly <3
