“ *Sylvia, Candice, and Jody,
We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your husband and father. We both have many fond memories of spending time at your home. We are truly sorry for your loss. I remember learning how to drive for the first time with Jody on a backyard track that your dad let us use. I remember his laughter and kind words too. I hope that peace finds you all and comforts you in the days ahead. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.*

“ I barely have a childhood memory that doesn't have "Uncle Bob & Aunt Sylvia" in it!!! From Christmas & New Year's parties to summer camping, Florida trips and every Saturday night of my growing up years--I am thankful that God blessed my family & me with such an amazing man and amazing family. I am praying that Sylvia, Candice & Jody & their families will feel the comfort that only Christ can provide right now. You were blessed with a wonderful husband and dad, and you will see him again someday. Keeping you all in prayer. Much love & prayers, Joelle & Jeff Engle and the kids.

“ I met Bob Cameron because a very special young lady, Candice Cameron, married my baby brother. The entire Cameron family has brought much love, joy and laughter to our family over the years. Bob was one of the kindest, most unassuming men I ever had the blessing to meet. We will truly miss his warm smile and genuine friendship.

Our love and prayers go out to the entire Cameron family. Hold tight to all those special memories until you are reunited again.

Much Love...Steve & Donna Osterwyk and families

“ How can I share a memory in this little box. The years have gone by so fast. Bob tolerated my antics for so long. Words are inefficient for describing Bob Cameron. He never tried to be the center of attention, although his laugh would single him out. Bob and Sylvia are very special people and will remain so as long as I have a memory. Love you all. Jeannie

“ My dad was one of a kind. He never complained. Never had a bad word to say about anyone. He had an endless sense of humor.....he was funny even when he wasn't trying to be. My mom has been an amazing care giver to my dad. Thats love..that's dedication. Please say a prayer for her. She lost her best friend and love of her life. I know the pain I feel...I cant imagine hers. My dad would never, ever want her to hurt the way she does. He was the most amazing person and anyone that knew him will miss him. I love you, Mom. I love you, Dad and I will never get over losing you. There is no one in the world like you. You were one of a kind. I love and miss you, Daddy.
