“ We have such great memories of our kids growing up next door to Grandma and Grandpa Sweetie. Just the other day we ran across the tool box he and our son Kile made in grandpa's garage when he was little (he's now 33). Im not sure who enjoyed it more Robert or Kile. Our kids knew that Grandpa always had a pack of Juicy Fruit gum in his truck. If they caught him outside and they said please and thank you the reward was a stick of gum. Many times Dom and he would discussion the Tigers Baseball team over a bottle of beer in the backyard. Grandpa Bob will always hold a special place in the Bommarito's heart. Our condolences go out to the family we will keep you in our prayers.
