He was the most loving father and grandfather. He worked at Fisher Body for 31 years, retiring in 1984 but he never stopped working. He enjoyed working for Wheeler Motor Sales for many years and later working at Holly-Fenton Transmission, and John Lowes Holly Car Wash that he continued to work at till his very last days of his life. Mr. Jorgensen is survived by his children; Robert Jorgensen Jr., Cheryl (William) McDougal, Lourie (Ernie) Hopson, Renee Jorgensen, Noreen Jorgensen, Robby (Leslie) Jorgensen; 14 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. His sisters and brother Ella Bell, Pearl Smith, Carol Haller, Linda Buchholz and Floyd Anderson. He was preceded in death by his wife Eudella, daughter Annie, son Johnny, granddaughter Heather, parents John, Emma, Mable, and siblings Ester Black, Irvin Anderson, Harvey Anderson, John Jorgensen Jr. and Doreen Loomis. “ I am so sorry that your family is going through another loss. I have fond and funny memories of your dad. I gave up correcting him on my name and just went with it. He always flirted with me and told me I looked better as a red head. Holly won't be the same without him. Much love and sympathy

“ Last summer I was at the car wash when I last saw Bob. He was sitting in his truck, facing opposite of the stalls. I walked up to his truck, said hello, as it had been some time since I'd seen him there, and by the looks of things, I suspected it might be the last time I see him there. He reminisced at length of his life here in Holly, from Johnson Motors to the car wash. I took it all in and loved every minute of it. You see, Bob is a big part of Holly. Not only for me, but many others. He encompasses all of which make Holly such a special place. I've many memories of him around town, but mostly at the car wash. From him helping out my husband there when our dog locked herself inside the truck to making sure we had enough quarters for the wash. Always kind, always soft-spoken. He was special. God rest your soul Bob, you will be sorely missed.
