

Robert M. Mitchell Jr.

August 31, 1960 - April 1, 2020

Robert “Bob” M. Mitchell, Jr. passed away unexpectedly of natural causes on April 1, 2020 in Buford, Georgia where he resided with his fiancée, Diana Hazlett. Bob was born on August 31, 1960 to Robert & Helen Mitchell in Holly, Michigan. After graduating from Holly, Bob owned and operated the Marathon gas station in Holly; formally his dad’s business, Bob Mitchell’s Standard. He was “Uncle Bob’ to most, “Builder Bob” to some, but a great friend and neighbor to everyone he met. Flashing those beautiful dimples, Bob was always happy, willing to help, and willing to give. He was very talkative, never met a stranger, and regularly pleased everyone with his special phrases like “It’s All Good”.

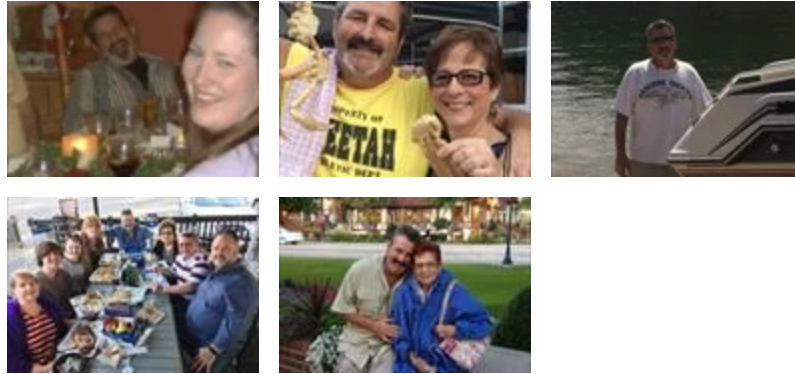

Bob was preceded in death by his father but is survived by his son, Robert “Bobby” T. Mitchell of Flowery Branch, Georgia, mother Helen Mitchell-Kish and sister, Suzanne Cool, both of Alaska, sister, Robin Fisher, nephew, Brian Near, niece, Brooke Fisher Inayat, great nephews and great nieces, and Ms. Hazlett, all of Georgia.

Cremation has taken place however due to the current State of Emergency future memorial tribute(s) will be delayed until further notice. Final interment at Lakeside Cemetery, Holly, Michigan beside his beloved father, Robert M. Mitchell, Sr. Please visit the online tribute and share memories with the family at www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com.
