“ I worked with Ron in my early years at UPS, and was a valued friend and mentor to myself and many others just starting out there. He always shared a joke when you least expected it, he never complained, and I knew if I could follow his lead I would do ok.

I hope his family can find peace in the knowledge of how loved and respected he was and how everyone who met him was better for having done so.

Blessings to the Sias family. Ron was a beautiful man and a true gentleman.

Heartfelt condolences,

Adam Gentry

Sandy; Steve, Rick. We are so sorry to see that your father has passed away. Claudia and I were so fortunate to get to know your Mom and Dad. There was not a day go by, when we drove by their house we didn't think about you. God Bless you all. Tom and Claudia McClerren
