“ Our Holly High School Class of 1979 is very saddened to hear about the passing of our '80 Classmate, Ronald J. Staffne.

Ron was very well liked by his Classmates, with a terrific sense of humor.

We send our deepest condolences, along with much love, strength and courage during this most difficult time. Peace 💜

“ I lived across the street from Autumn. I had a flat tire and Mr. Staffne called his roadside assistance and said he was driving and stood outside with me while we waited for the driver to get there. We waited outside for at least 40 minutes talking about anything, I remember talking about dogs a little bit, but we talked about more things too. He was a really good man.
